

ID-140 EXAM DATE: Wed. December 12th 8:00 – 10:30
Study Guide for Final Exam

Overview:

15 true/false questions (30 points)
6 multiple choice (12 points)
Matching (textiles) (15 points)
Short answer (listing) 23 points
Matching (designers) 20 points

Designers

See the summary handout on the designers and know the ones that are highlighted. These will be in a matching format.

Textiles:

What is the Textile Fiber Products Identification Act of 1958 and what three things does it stipulate?
What does C.O.M stand for?
What does F.O.B stand for?
What does RTA stand for?
What are the three basic components that make up a fabric?
In a matching scenario, be able to identify the following: Natural fiber, synthetic fiber, fabric/weave and trade name. ie: cotton is a natural fiber, polyester is a synthetic fiber, twill is a weave, satin is a weave, mohair is a natural fiber, Herculon is a trade name, silk is a natural fiber etc.
What are the positive aspects of synthetic fibers?
What are the three general categories of weaves?
What is an example of a twill weave?
Know the other weaves/fabric names (ie: Leno, chenille, velvet, Jacquard, Damasks, knit, etc.)
What is railroading fabric?
What is the Wyzenbeek and Martindale tests?
Know the following fire tests:
CAL – 117, CAL-133, ASTM-E84, UL, NFPA-701

Furniture:

What are the two categories of furniture?
What are the 4 quality evaluation points for upholstered goods and be able to describe an example of each. This is a possible short answer
What factors should you consider before selecting furniture?
What is a hardwood and an example?
What is a softwood and an example?
Which foam is most often used as a filling for upholstered goods?
Name 4 types of joinery techniques for casegoods.

Flooring, walls, ceilings, windows and doors:

What are the three categories of flooring and be able to list some examples of each type. (hard, soft and resilient)
Know the types of carpet construction/textures
Know the difference between a Type I and a Type II wallcovering. Which one is heavier and more durable?
What are the 4 functions of windows?
Know the types of windows from the handout (double, hung, casement, jalousie, awnings, Clerestory, Palladian etc.) Can you identify them from a picture (multiple-choice)
What are four types of doors?
What is the most important factor to consider when locating a door opening?